

WILL OF JOHN HATCHE of Tenterden, Kent, England

This will is unique in several respects with the obviously one being additional proof that Winifred Hatch md Stephen Huckstep, their daughter Lydia Huckstep md Nathaniel Tilden and they had a daughter Sarah Tilden. It is unusual for so many family members in multiple generations to be named in a Will. Nathaniel and Lydia Huckstep Tilden, their family, and a servant, George Sutton, along with members of the Hatch family left Sandwich near Tenterden in the ship Hercules in 1634/35 and arrived in Scituate, Mass in the Plymouth Bay Colony. Although they did not arrive on the Mayflower the Tilden family is usually included in the oldest families of the Colony. Records suggest that Nathaniel Tilden and the Hatch family jointly owned the Hercules and indeed also on the boat was one William Hatch with a servant Symon Sutton. What the relationship was between George and Symon Sutton we do not know yet. The servant, George Sutton, md Sarah Tilden daughter of Nathaniel and Lydia Huckstep in Scituate on 13 March 1636. They left Scituate around 1654 and went to Huntington Long Island, New York for at least 8 – 10 years. It is possible they made another stop before arriving in Albemarle/Perquimans Prec. but the earliest date they are proven in Perquimans is 1671 despite the death date of George in 1669 listed in the records. The date is given but not the place. This is an ongoing project. An unknown daughter of George and Sarah Tilden Sutton to those of us in NC was Mary who first md in Long Island to John Gosby and 2nd Albert Albertson in Perquimans Prec. They may or may not have been ancestors of the Duplin Co Albertson family and were also out of Scituate. Another daughter of George and Sarah was Sarah who md John Barrow who may or may not have been the ancestors of one of the Pitt and Dobbs Co Barrow families. A great grandson, Thomas Sutton b 1699/1700, moved to Bertie Co where he married three times. Through his 2nd wife, Judith Hardison, he had a daughter, Mary, who md Lemuel Hardy, Jr. and that family moved to Dobbs County. Through Thomas' first wife, Elizabeth Luerton, he had a son, John, whom we are fairly certain moved to Bucklesbury, Dobbs Co and is the ancestor of all the local Sutton families.

The Hatch family is not the object of this project but I would not be surprised to discover the local eastern NC Hatch family descends from a brother of John Hatche as they were in England, Scituate, and Perquimans County together.

This will also gives us some clues from an anthropology view as to why these families left England and then left Mass. It has always been written the Sutton family of Perquimans were Quaker and some of the later family were as well as some of the allied families. A brief look at the History of the Quakers indicates the early generation was not Quaker. The Tildens had generations of records at St. Mildred's Church in Tenterden which was Church of England yet John Hatche the author of this will may have been a follower of John Calvin so it appears that some disagreement with COE was one reason for leaving England. In addition to the Sermons on Galatians by John Calvin he also left money to the Rev. Lothrop who may have been the John Lothrop who was a COE clergyman who left to join the Separatists and was one of the first settlers of Barnstable, Mass.

The religious history of these groups is very complicated and although some of the Separatists had to flee England some of the Pilgrims remained loyal to the COE they either elected to flee or were forced to. Quakers found the religious environment of Plymouth Colony unpleasant and many left. Exactly why the Suttons moved several times is not proven at this point but Perquimans County was very hospitable to those of the Quaker belief. There is a great deal of information on this subject on the internet.

Our thanks to Sloan Spence Mason for finding a lengthy article which contained the will but not the NEHGR reference.

The below will was found in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register – VOL LXX p 249 1916 and also in Vol 67 p 45.
