PREFACE

When the suggestion was made that some record of my family should be made for my children, separated as they are from their paternal kin, it seemed so simple at first, but it soon became evident that I knew very little about my own people.

Thus began the request for actual data from one generation back to the next. True, it has required much persistent effort, and at times has met little sympathy. On the other hand there have been those that very graciously contributed their time in assembling information on particular families. Their efforts are sincerely appreciated. Without their assistance this compilation would not have been as complete as it is.

The task has been complicated by the lack of records due to the destruction on nearly all the Dobbs County records when the Lenoir County Court House burned on October 21, 1873. Many of the papers of the private collection of the late Mr. Lovit Hines, now in the North Carolina State Department of Archives, were legal instruments of various members of the early Tull family in North Carolina, and have been of invaluable assistance.

The aim has been to record the facts as they are to be found in family Bibles, Wills, Court and Colonial Records and records furnished by members of the family, without resort to assumption, as a factual history of a family for the members of the family. When possible, an effort has been made to include a brief historical sketch for further identification and interest. The information received from a mass of correspondence over a period of several years has been carefully checked for accuracy. Yet errors will undoubtedly be found, for the data of the death of my Grandmother is not the same on the tombstone as is written in the family Bible, and even the spelling differs!

It is hoped that this information may be of interest and value, and that some one more capable and diligent may be able to complete those portions where data was unavailable at this time.

INTRODUCTION

About 1664 Thomas and Richard Tull came from England and settled in Virginia and a short time later moved to Maryland. As this is written, two hundred and ninety one years later, the name is a familiar one along the Eastern shore of Maryland and Virginia. Branches of this family extended to other parts of the country when the early pioneers ventured into the new territories.

The Eastern North Carolina branch of the family was established when Isaac Tull moved his family from Baltimore, Maryland, to Dobbs County, North Carolina in 1755. (This family is not to be confused with the name sometimes encountered in the Western part of the State. The 1790 Federal Census listed Nicholas, William and Frederick Tull with families in Stokes County, North Carolina. However, they were from a different family, although perhaps distantly related.)

Isaac Tull prospered in Dobbs County. Surviving records indicate that many acres of land were acquired before he died in 1784. Although Isaac's descendants are scattered throughout the country now, as is to be expected, Lenoir County, formed from Dobbs in 1791, is the seat of the North Carolina branch of the Tull family, and many of his descendants are to be found there today.

In this account of the North Carolina branch of the Tull family, no effort has been made to trace the Tull ancestry beyond the first settler to this country. The following data compiled by Frances Houston Irwin, Genealogist, is from "John Porter Tull and His Descendants 1796-1942" by James Porter Tull, printed by Morton B. Hadlock, Hartford, Conn.;

"The name of Tull was evolved from that of Maoltuile, the second son of Maolfeach, Prince of Ulster, Ireland, who flourished during the seventh century.

"Maoltuile was the first to Anglicize the name to Multully - Tully - meaning flood - Ulster. This spelling continued through the generations to Kyras Tully, who died in County Galway, Ireland, in 1637 Kyras Tully married (1) Sheela, daughter of Thomas O'Kelly, their sons being MATHEW, Mark, Luke, John, Conner.

"A thorough research through the archives of Ireland reveals no further record of Matthew Tully until he appears as Mathew Tull on the list of commissioned officers from Ireland in the army of Charles I, King of England. In September 1649, during the Cromwellian Protectorate, there was there was a general massacre of the officers of the forty-four Companies of Charles I in Ireland, and as the only record made afterward of Matthew Tully-Tull was that his confiscated estates were sold at Chichester House in Dublin, circa 1650-1651, he was evidently among the officers slain.

THOMAS TULL and his brother Richard came to Virginia from England about 1664. According to the Virginia records Thomas Tull, son of Thomas Tull, Senior of Berkshire, England, patented land on June 10, 1664 in what later became Northampton County, Virginia. Two days later Richard Tull patented land there on June 12, 1664. This was just fifty seven years after the establishment of the first permanent English Colony at Jamestown, Virginia in 1607. (Cavaliers and Pioneers of VA.)

They did not remain in Virginia long for the Maryland records state that they “were in Annessex Section in 1666”, and are listed in Somerset County, Maryland as first settlers in 1661-1666. On November 28, 1689 they signed the address of Inhabitants of Somerset County, pledging loyalty to William and Mary and the Protestant religion.

Richard Tull married Martha Rhodes in 1671 and their children were; Rachel 1672, Richard 1675, George 1677, John 1681, William 1684, Benjamin 1686, Elizabeth 1688, Mary 1690, Sarah 1694, and Richard 1695. John Rhodes sold land to Richard and Thomas Tull in 1671. Land was called “Salisbury” and was in Maryland.

Thomas Tull married Mary Minshall. “The first Banns of Matrimony were published for Thomas Tull of Annessicke and Mary Minshall of Morunsco” on September 4, 1666 when the first court sat for Somerset County, and they were married on October 1666. They had four children. Thomas died after March 8, 1697 as he served on the Grand Jury for Somerset County on that date. (Old Somerset on E.S. of MD.) Their children:

1. . i Thomas Tull born 1668 married Sarah
- ii Richard Tull born 1670
- iii John Tull born 1674 married Esther Benton. This family has been recorded in “John Porter Tull and His Descendants 1796-1942” by James Porter Tull, printed by Morton B. Hadlock, Hartford, Conn.
- iv Mary Tull born 1677.

1. Thomas Tull, first son of Thomas and Mary (Minshall) Tull, was born in 1668 in Somerset County, Maryland. Apparently, on becoming of age, young Thomas Tull decided to try out the Carolina Territory, and leaving his family in Somerset County, Maryland, he moved into Albemarle County, North Carolina. At the General Court of Albemarle County, N.C., on September 28, 1694, “Thomas Tull shewing that in ye year 1689 he the said Thomas Tull obtained a nonsuite against Jno Gibbs esq for which noe satisfaction hath hitherto been made for his costs and charges therein....etc” (Colonial Records of North Carolina) There is a Tull’s Creek and a Tull’s Swamp in Currituck County which was formed from Albemarle County. However, he did not remain in North Carolina but moved back to Maryland where he died. His will, dated November 26, 1727 and probated January 4, 1728 (Abstracts of Wills of Somerset County, Maryland) mentioned; Sarah Tull, widow. Son, Thomas, is to care for William and Isaac Tull, and his two youngest sisters, Esther and Grace until they are of age. Land of John Tull is to be given to Samuel Tull. Sons, William, Isaac and Samuel (William and Isaac not yet 18) Daughters, Sarah, Rachel, Esther, Grace and Mary.

"In England, the records of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury give the wills in 1656 of John Tull, Sen. and Thomas Tull, Sen., both of Berkshire, There is no further record of Thomas Tull, Senior of Thomas Tull, Jun., but the highest Irish authorities states, 'The ancient Irish Proprietors and their children who survived the Cromwellian devastation were scattered from one end of the World to the other, in England, Scotland and the great Western Republic'-

"In America, the Virginia archives state that Thomas and Richard Tull patented land in 1664".

Note: As to the way some of the old dates were written:

The first calendar was the Jewish calendar, which being, a lunar calendar had thirteen months. This was followed by the Julian calendar of twelve months or 365 $\frac{1}{4}$ days, by Julius Caesar in 46 B.C. It was changed in A.D. 1582 to the present Gregorian Calendar by Pope Gregory XIII, but was not adopted by the English speaking countries until 1752. When finally adopted the New Year was changed from Enunciation Day - March 25 - to January 1, 1752, but the dates were then in error by eleven days.

Therefore, George Washington's birthday recorded in the family Bible as February 11 when corrected became February 22. Dates between January 1 and March 25 on some old records may be found as - February 24, 1743/4, that is 1744 by our present Gregorian calendar.

Children of Thomas and Sarah Tull were:

- i Thomas Tull
- ii Samuel Tull
- iii Sarah Tull
- iv Rachel Tull
- v Mary Tull
- vi William Tull
- 2 vii Isaac Tull born December 16, 1718 married Winifred Caldwell.
- viii Esther Tull
- ix Grace Tull

2 Isaac Tull, son of Thomas Tull (#1) and his wife, Sarah, was born December 16, 1718 and died in 1784 in Dobbs County, North Carolina. He was just nine years old when his father died and under the charge of his older brother, Thomas, was soon apprenticed with his brother William, as was then customary. In the Will of Godfrey Spragle, dated December 14, 1737 (Wills of Somerset County, Maryland, page 228) "William and Isaac Tull, apprentices of said Spragle, are given their freedom". Six years later at the age of twenty five, he married on February 24, 1743/4 (see note on dates) Winifred Caldwell was born October 25, 1720 at Baltimore, Maryland and died May 18, 1806 in Lenoir County, North Carolina. They moved from Baltimore to North Carolina in 1755 and settled between Nuce River and Briary Branch" near what is now Kinston, North Carolina. Space does not permit copies of some of the interesting deeds written in their colorful legal terms of the period when North Carolina was being settled by these venturesome pioneers.

The 1790 Federal Census lists only 915 families in Dobbs County which was formed from Johnston County by an Act of the General Assembly in 1758, and until 1779 included the territory now embraced by Wayne, Greene and Lenoir. Wayne was created from Dobbs in 1779, and the remainder divided into Lenoir and Glasgow in 1791. Glasgow became Greene in 1799.

Isaac Tull was sixty six years old when he died in 1784 and was buried on his plantation in Dobbs County, North Carolina, in the vicinity of the present Caswell Training School. Winifred, his wife lived to be eighty six when she died on May 19, 1806. Her own list of her children is among the papers of the Lovit Hines Lenoir County papers, page 307, dated January 24 Day 1762, in the North Carolina State Department of Archives, Raleigh, N.C. The children of Isaac and Winifred (Caldwell) Tull were:

- 3 i John Tull born October ye 15 Day 1744
- ii Charles Tull was born October 19, 1746 and Died ye 18th of June 1750.
- iii Elizabeth Tull was born Febr ye 6, 1748/9. (She was born in Baltimore, Maryland, and moved to North Carolina with her family when she was seven years old. It is believed that Elizabeth married either Hugh Ward, James Hutchins or Edward Hutchins, and that her sisters, Ann and Sarah, were wives of the other two.
This opinion is based on the following contract dated February 20, 1784 (Lovit -Hines papers, p 140 N.C. Department of Archives); "Know all men by these presents we Charles Tull, William Tull and Hugh Ward, James Hutchins and Edward Hutchins all of County and State of North Carolina are held and firmly bound unto John Tull, Executor of Isaac Tull in the sum of two hundred pounds lawful money of this State...etc".
- iv Ann Tull was born May 23, 1751. (See note under iii above)
- 4 v Charles Tull was born December 2, 1753. He married Sarah Hardy.
- 5 vi William Tull was born April 12, 1756
- vii Isaac Tull was born November 18, 1758. No further reference has been found. It is believed he died young.
- viii Sarah Tull was born December 6, 1761 in Dobbs Co., N.C. (See note under iii above)

3 John Tull, son of Isaac Tull (#2) and his wife, Winifred Caldwell, was born October 15, 1744 in Baltimore, Maryland, and died on September 20, 1820 in Lenoir County, North Carolina. (Account in RALEIGH REGISTER October 27, 1820. He married on September 12, 1779 Elizabeth Cannon who died on December 30, 1820. He was listed among those drafted in Capt. Kennedy's Company of Militia of Dobbs County, July 26, 1777. (Roster of Soldiers from N.C. in American Revolution. N.C. Dept. of Archives.) He expanded the holdings inherited from his father and became one of the largest property owners of the state. His will follows:

He died about 1820. His wife was Susannah, but her last name is not known. One of the existing deeds is as follows: "This indenture made this ninth day of October in the year of our Lord, one Thousand eight hundred and twenty one between Susannah Tull of the State of North Carolina and County of Lenoir on the one part, and William Tull her son of the State and county aforesaid....etc" The 1790 Census lists four daughters and from deeds it is found that they had three sons:

Much of the information on this family has been derived from Census records and a few deeds in the Lovit Hines Collection in the N. C. State Dept. of Archives. The only descendants known to the present generation were those of William Tull, Jr. and the last of those died in 1926. Undoubtedly, some Tulls found listed in Lenoir County Census and other records were members of this family, but their connections are uncertain and it is not known what became of them.

- 6 Elizabeth Tull, daughter of John Tull (#3) and his wife Elizabeth Cannon, was born October 6,, 1782 and died about 1824. He died of a heart attack while sitting on the front porch at the plantation home called "The White House". He married Susan Hill, daughter of Richard and Mary Hill of Dobbs County. She was born in 1790 and after her husband's death lived with her son John and his first wife. She and her son had typhoid fever at the same time and she had been buried in 1861 beside her husband before her son knew she had died. He inherited much of his father's property and purchased more to become one of the largest planters of Eastern Carolina.

The home place North of Kinston known as "The White House" is owned (in 1955) by Mr. Payton Hooker and is well preserved although much altered. Not far from this, and once a part of the same plantation is the overseer's house now owned by Mr. R. Burwell Holland, a grandson of the overseer during the War Between the States. Mr. Holland came by this through his parents, J. B. and Emily (Hill) Holland who bought it January 1, 1907 from Wm. H. Worth who had bought it December 31, 1861 with 2,058 acres from John and Winnie R. Tull. Mr. Holland recalls his mother's description of Small Pox among the slaves during the war. Meals were prepared at the "Big House" and placed in front of the slave quarters that arranged on a street adjacent to the big house. She said that many were buried during the epidemic in a spot now know as the slave grave yard just to the rear of the overseer's house. The Tull family grave yard is also on this plantation and when visited in 1952 contained only three markers. One being inscribed as follows: "Sacred to the Memory of Henry Tull, born October 12, 1787 Died Nov 18, 1856 ag'd 69 yrs 1 mo 6 D's". No marker to his wife, Susan.
