

Ahnentafel of PETER HARGETT

--- 1st Generation ---

1. Peter<sup>1</sup> Hargett (19039).

Peter had to have been born by 1740 in order to have been the executor of his father's Will in 1762 but it is likely he was born earlier. One son, probably the brother Frederick, was at least 16 in 1755. Peter could have had two wives. Frederick went to Craven Co. first and became a well known citizen and was a General in the American Rev.

<sup>2</sup>Will of Peter Hargett, written 5 Oct. 1797, probated Nov. Term 1797, Jones County.

Frederick was on the 1755 Beaufort County Tax List with one son and Bartholomew. No indication of who Bartholomew was but probably a servant. That would indicate that Frederick Jr or another son was at least 16 years of age.

PANTECO TRACINGS - published by the Beaufort Co Genealogical Society

Vol VI - June 1990 - Sept Court 1756 - building a new courthouse - Frederick Hargett was the carpenter hired

Between the years from 1709 to 1753, six persons with Hargett - type names came to Philadelphia.

1) Petter Hugett, 1737

2) Franz Carel Huget, 1738

3) Friederich Herget, 1748 To Lancaster\, Pa.

4) Johan Henrich/Heinrich Herget signed the oath of allegiance and abjuration Oct. 2, 1749, in a list of people from Swabia, Wirtemberg, and Dormstadt who came on the ship Jacob, </I>Capt. Adolph de Grove, from Amsterdam, to Philadelphia via Shields, in England. This is the German immigrant who went to Anson County, NC, and lived in close proximity to Tilman Helms. He became a part of our family inheritance. The author favored Darmstadt as his place of origin. His immigration point was Philadelphia. His path to NC is not known.

5) Petter Hergedt, 1750 To Frederick Co, Md.

6) Johannes Herguth, 1753, b. Rosenthal, Hesse To Pa.

The kinship of these people is not known although I am inclined to think that our Frederick and Peter of Md. were brothers.

Frederick arrived in the Edinburgh on 5 Sept 1748 and signed his name. There are no women on the list and I assume there are no children's names.
